INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE APPLICANT

a) If you have been a BUAN student during the past five years:

Complete the information requested in the box above (A). Give this form and a self-addressed envelope to a member of the academic staff you have chosen to be your referee. The referee will complete Questions 3 and 4 to provide a reference based on your previous performance at BUAN and return the reference to you, sealed, in the envelope you provided. When you receive the sealed envelope include it with the other application material, unopened. Additional references are not required, but you may provide them if you wish.

b) If you have not been a BUAN student during the past five years:

Complete the information requested in the box above (A). Give a form and stamped, self-addressed envelope to each of three individuals who will provide you with a reference. When you receive the sealed envelope include it with the other application material, unopened.

Important: Do not open the Reference Report when you receive it from your referee. If the seal on the envelope has been broken, your application will not be considered.
